“I say, that was a lucky escape. Next time, I shall wait for you Snail,” grins Worm.

Wait for Snail

(ay a-e a ey)

“Worm, wait up!” said Snail. Snail huffs and puffs behind Worm. He cannot keep up. “I want to play with you today,” said Snail.

“What did you say? The lettuces look amazing today!” said Worm. “I heard from the birds that Mr Brown sprays them and puts out bait to catch worms like you,” yells Snail again.

“Stay away from the lettuce leaves. I heard from the birds that Mr Brown sprays them and puts out bait to catch worms like you,” yells Snail.

“Put some wind in your sail, Snail!” yells Worm. Worm chugs through the garden lawn like a bullet train.

“Race you to the vegetable patch,” said Worm.
“Wait for me,” pants Snail.

Worm wins the race. He does not wait for Snail. Worm aims for the juicy, green lettuces.
