A Fly in the Pie

(ie i-e i y)

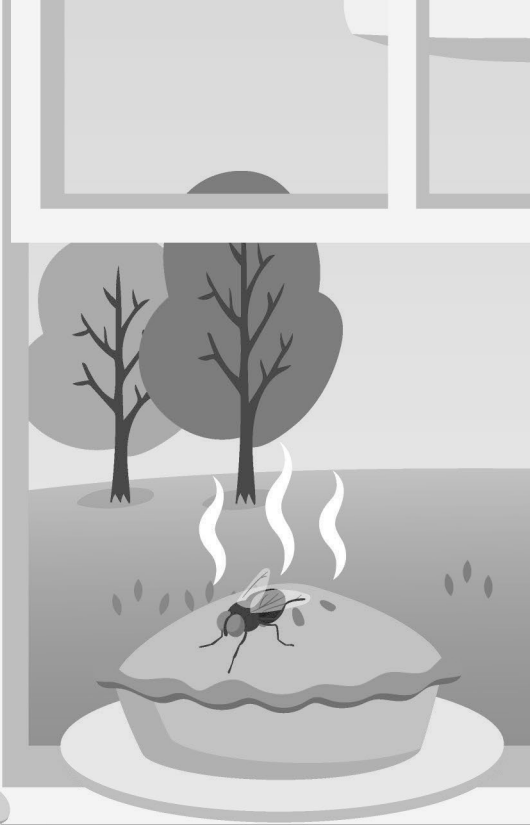

“Got you!” said Nan. The fly buzzed out the window. “Bye, bye, fly,” said Nan and Kat.

“Nan, look over there! There is a fly in the pie!” cried Kat. “Eeek!” cried Nan.

“Nan, why don’t we creep up behind the fly?” said Kat. “Kat, you are right, his eyes can see us from the side but perhaps not from behind,” said Nan.

"This fly is making me wild," said Nan. "Get out of my sight or this will be a big fight," she said.

Way up high, Nan had put her cherry pie to cool down on the window sill. And now, a fly was in the cherry pie.

“Do you mind? I might like eating this pie,” said the fly. “Why is there a fly in my pie?” said Nan. “Quick, find a fly swat,” said Kat.

“Get out of my pie!” shouted Nan. “Catch me if you can,” said the fly. The fly buzzed off and then climbed back on the pie.
