Jo blows some snow into Tim's face.
"Now, there's a snowman," laughs Jo.

Throw Some Snow

(ow oe o-e o ou)

Jo ran to the window. "It's snowing! Come quickly Tim, it's snowing!" shouted Jo.

"Here goes," said Tim. The sled slides through the snow, like a boat on water. Thwump. The kids land in a heap. They are covered in snow again.

"I will get you back when you least expect it," grins Jo. "Come on, give me a tow on the sled," she said.

The children grabbed their winter coats and they both ran outside. "This is the most snow I have ever seen," said Tim. The snow was piling up thick.

“Look at how the snowflakes float,” said Tim.
“Can we make a snowman?” said Jo.

“First, we need to throw some snow!” said Tim.
Tim threw a snowball at Jo. Thwack. It burst open all over her face. She was covered head to toe in snow. “Now, there’s a snowman,” laughs Tim.
