

The Hut

By Anna Kirschberg

Illustrated by James Keiaho

Book Summary

This title looks at a story about Ted and Sid at the top of a hill, having a nap after they have cut up some logs to build a hut. The reader is introduced to new letter sounds. Vivid and detailed illustrations depict and help the text explain some basic information about each page image and create an engaging story.

This book follows the Beanstalk Books (Letters & Sounds) Phase 2 progression and focuses on learning the first 19 letters that are taught in this sequence.

Skills and Strategies

This book builds on decodable reading strategies for high/low readers. The book has been written using a strictly controlled vocabulary. Text uses only decodable regular words (according to the week by week progression of Letters & Sounds) along with 'tricky words' or 'Common Exception Words' (CEWs). Common Exception Words are frequently used words that are not decodable at this phase.

Phase 2 - Letter Sounds

Tricky Words:

the, of, to, has, no, go

This book also supports other key reading strategies:

- Recognising the relationship between words and illustrations;
- Pointing one-to-one at each word to ensure an appropriate match;
- Vocabulary and word study.

This book also supports key comprehension strategies:

- Predicting the meanings of new or unfamiliar words from the context of the story;
- Recognising the relationship between letters and their sounds;
- Summarising the main ideas of the story.

Introducing the Text

Open up the discussion about the front cover illustration and make connections with the children's prior knowledge. Prompt discussions by using the vocabulary in the book.

From the title, can you describe what you think the story will be about?

Can you describe what the characters are doing on the front cover?

Read the title and the name of the author to the group. Read aloud any common exception words from the front inner cover.

Reading the Text

Pages 2 and 3 – Explain where to begin reading, and ask the student to point to each word as you read aloud together. Sound out the letter sounds as you go, for example: (/n/a/p/).

Pages 4 and 5 – On this page, the illustration depicts a rat running up to the logs and putting them into a sack. The rat runs off with the logs in the sack, while the two boys are napping. Sound out the word ‘fill’ together (/f/i/ll/), with the focus on the target letter sound /ll/.

Pages 6 and 7 – The illustrations depict Sid and Ted waking up from their nap and seeing that the rat has taken their logs back down the hill in the sack.

The boys are upset with the rat.

Page 8 – On the final page, Sid and Ted go back down the hill to collect their logs. Repeat the words in the text and sound them out several times together.

Students can now read the book independently.

At the end of the story, go over the text and illustrations again and discuss what is happening on each page.

Revisiting the Text

As a group, refer back to the table in the front inner cover and identify the words in the story that use the new letter sounds being taught in Phase 2.

To start with, identify as many new consonant and/or vowel graphemes as you can in the words in the text. For example, ‘h’, ‘u’ ‘t’, in the word ‘hut’. Sound out the letter sounds to say the word together - /h/u/t/. Where else in the text can you find the /h/ letter sound? Review all the Phase 2 letter sounds that you have learned.

Following Up

Use the BLM for this story, the students can review the letter sounds (Phase 2) being used in the text of the story.
