The Nest

Pip lifts the nest up. The chick cheeps the softest of cheeps. “Thank you,” cheeps the chick.

Deep in the woods, Pip and Sid camp in a tent. The rain and hail hits the tent hard.

"This chick looks lost and sad. Let us help it," said Pip. "I think we can put the nest back up, in that oak," said Sid.

In the nest, there is a chick. "Cheep, cheep," said the chick. The nest sinks deeper into the mud.

The wind gusts all night long. A big oak has fallen down in the wind.

All of a sudden, Pip and Sid hear a soft “Cheep, cheep.”

“Quick, let us go and see,” said Pip.
“There! It is a nest,” yells Sid.
