Book Summary

This title looks at a simple fantasy themed story about Mat and Ted, who stumble across a strange wizard in a medieval forest one day. The text will introduce the reader to new consonant blends. Detailed and vibrant illustrations depict and help the text explain some basic story information about each page.

This book follows the Beanstalk Books (Letters & Sounds) Phase 4 progression and focuses on teaching blending and segmentation of adjacent consonant blends.

Introducing the Text

Open up the discussion about the front cover illustration and make connections with the children's prior knowledge. Prompt discussions by using the vocabulary in the book.

Describe the setting on the front cover illustration.

Describe the characters on the front cover.

Read the title and the name of the author to the group. Read aloud the featured common exception words from each phase, from the front inner cover.

Reading the Text

Pages 2 and 3 – Explain where to begin reading, and ask the student to point to each word as you read aloud together. The main characters are Ted and Mat. Discuss the setting and scene shown in the pictures. What is happening here? What do the boys hear and see? Describe the wizard.

Pages 4 and 5 – In the illustrations on these pages, the wizard calls out for help because he has hurt himself. How?

Pages 6 and 7 – Here, the boys help the wizard up.

Page 8 – The final page ends with the wizard offering to grant the boys a wish to thank them for helping him. What do the boys say?

Children can now read the book independently.

At the end of the story, go over the text and illustrations again and discuss what is happening on each page.

Revisiting the Text

As a group, refer back to the table in the front inner cover and identify the words in the story that use some of the new consonant blends being taught in Phase 4. Identify as many new blends as you can in words in the text. For example, 'gr' in 'groan', and 'dr' in 'droop', and 'pr' in 'prick'.

Revisit the common exception words in the text.

How many times can you find the word 'you'?

Notice the use of any different types of punctuation.

Discuss these.
