Plums in the Moonlight

“We are glad to have met you,” said Pat. “We are glad for the plums,” said Pip. “Thank you, Og,” they said.

Deep in the dark forest, the gloom sets in. Pip turns on the glass lamp. Pat blinks in the light.

Pat and Pip go with Og to his den. The plums are good. The gloom in the forest lifts. The Moon looks bright. Pip and Pat can see the trail out.

Pat and Pip look blank. “Plums?” Pat asks. Pip frowns. “Yes, fresh, plump plums. They will set you free from the forest,” said Og.

“I think we need a plan, Pat,” said Pip. “A plan to get out of here,” said Pat.

There is a glint of green light in the mist. It is Og. Og blends into the forest.

Og signals to them to come. "Come with me," Og said. "I have some plump, plums for you," he said.
