The Lost Glasses

“Problem solved,” yells Pip. She picks up the lost glasses. “What would I do without your help,” she said. “Anytime, my friend. Are you ready for that math test now?” said Sid.

“Sid, wait up!” yells Pip. “What is the matter?” asks Sid. “You won’t believe this but I’ve lost my glasses,” said Pip. “You mean, your reading glasses?” said Sid. Pip nodded.

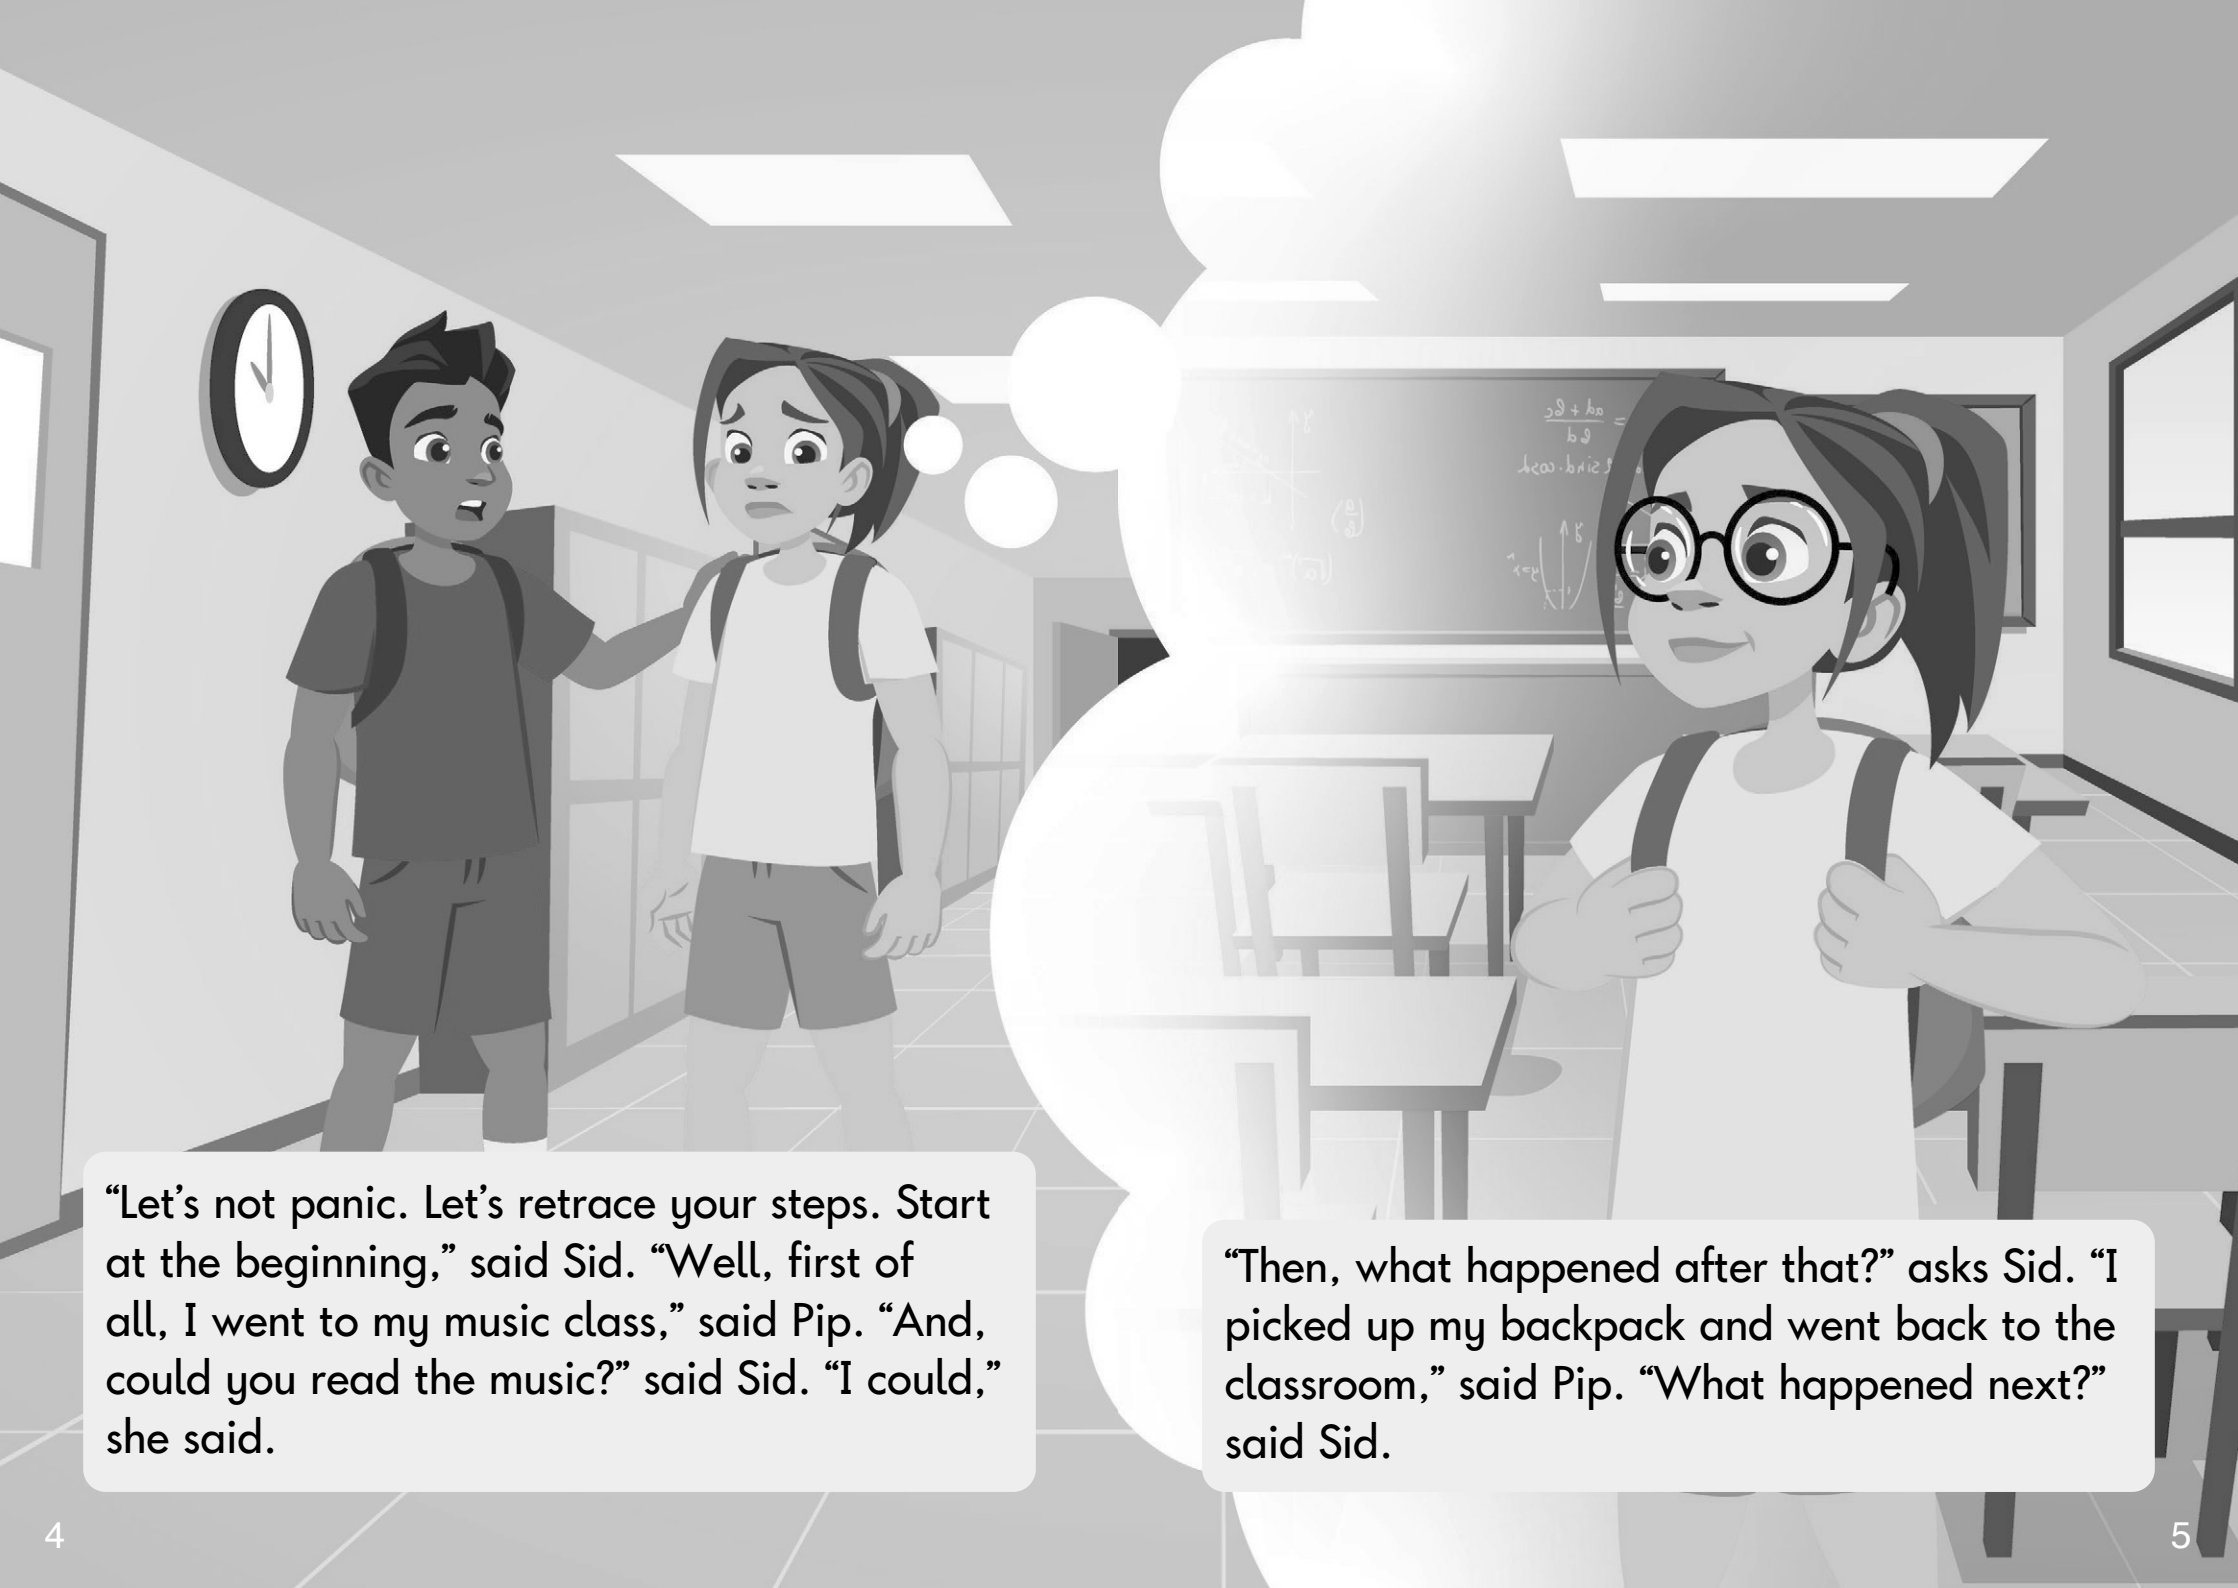

“Can you remember which desk you sat at?” said Sid. “I can,” Pip said. “Better get back to the classroom then,” said Sid. Pip and Sid run to the classroom.

"It was reading time. We got our books out, of course," said Pip. "And, could you read your book?" said Sid. "I could," she said.

"Oh no, and we have that math test in half an hour," said Sid. Pip nodded again. "If I can't read, I'll flunk the test!" she wails.

“Let’s not panic. Let’s retrace your steps. Start at the beginning,” said Sid. “Well, first of all, I went to my music class,” said Pip. “And, could you read the music?” said Sid. “I could,” she said.

“Then, what happened after that?” asks Sid. “I picked up my backpack and went back to the classroom,” said Pip. “What happened next?” said Sid.
