Hopped, Skipped and Jumped

The frog kicked its legs and flipped in the water. Kip kicked and flipped in the water. “Don’t look at me, Kip. I’m not jumping in!” laughed Pip.

“Wait up!” yelled Pip. Kip, her dog, ran quickly ahead to the park. As Kip raced off, Pip giggled to herself. “Kip always does this,” she said.

“It’s a frog, just a frog,” said Pip. Kip skipped, hopped and jumped into the pond. There was a very big splash. Pip got drenched.

Kip kept sniffing and sniffing. “What is it, Kip?” asked Pip. All of a sudden, something green hopped into the pond, with a big splash. Kip barked and barked.

When Pip finally arrived at the park, she could see what Kip was doing. Kip sniffed the grass, frantically. Kip hopped up and down with excitement, like a spring lamb.

Kip followed a trail that led down a hill, to a pond. Pip followed Kip, close behind.

At the pond, there were big lily pads that floated like ballerinas on top. The lily pads bloomed with bright, pink lilies.
