Running Late

Kip came back downstairs. She picked up her backpack. “This feels heavier than I expected,” she said. Pip looked inside the backpack. “Oh no, Kip! You can’t come to school today!” said Pip. “Thanks for helping though,” she said.

Review

“Kip, help me! I am running late for school this morning!” said Pip. Pip slept in. Kip slept in. The alarm clock did not go off this morning.

Kip added a few items to the backpack. Kip packed the dog lead. Kip packed some fun toys. Kip packed some balls to play fetch with. Kip added to the lunchbox too. Kip packed some delicious dog treats.

Next, she went back upstairs to get changed for school. While she was brushing her teeth, Kip set to work. It was Kip's turn to help out.

Pip raced into the kitchen. She poured herself some cereal. She made herself some toast. Kip raced around the house with excitement.

Pip packed her lunchbox. She made herself some sandwiches. She packed some fruit and cookies. She filled up her drink bottle with cold water.

Pip packed her backpack. She packed her homework books. She packed her sports gear. She packed her sun hat and sunscreen.
