

Name the Bone

We each have a skeleton made up of many bones. Bones give our bodies their structure and their shape. We have over two hundred bones in our bodies!

Name the Bone

Without our bones we cannot move. Bones protect our organs and our bodily systems. Our bones grow and change all the time. Now, it's time to look at your bones. Which bone am I? Read on and see if you can name that bone.

Name the Bone

In your body, I am the largest bone around. Here is a clue. I am in the leg. What am I? I am the femur.

Name the Bone

I help you twist and bend. I hold you upright. I can send information from your brain to the rest of your body. What am I? I am your spine. The bones that make up your spine are called vertebrae.

Name the Bone

There are twelve pairs of this set of bones. They protect our heart and our lungs. What am I? I am the ribs. You can call me the rib cage.

Name the Bone

Name the Bone

This bone is huge and it protects your kidneys.
The bones in your legs are connected to this bone. What am I? I am the pelvis.

Name the Bone

I protect your brain. What am I? I am the skull.
How did you do? Can you name the other bones
in your body?

Name the Bone