Introducing the Text

Open up the discussion about the front cover image and make connections with the children's prior knowledge of this topic. Prompt discussions by using the vocabulary in the book.

What does the title of the book tell you about the front cover image?

What do you already know about this topic?

Read the title and the name of the author to the group. Read aloud the examples of words with affixes added to them and any spelling rules that apply, from the front inner cover.

Reading the Text

Pages 2 and 3 – Explain where to begin reading, and ask the student to point to each word as you read aloud together. What do you know about George Washington Carver?

Pages 4 and 5 – In this photograph, describe what you can see in the images and review the text together. Identify the words in the text that feature the use of suffix -ed.

Pages 6 and 7 – Here, the reader will encounter words like ‘encouraged’ that feature suffix -ed. Can you think of any other words that contain suffix -ed, and can you find other examples in the text?

Page 8 – Describe what the photograph on the final page is showing. Which words contain the -ed suffix?

Children can now read the book independently. At the end of the book, go over the text and photographs again and discuss what is happening on each page.

Revisiting the Text

As a group, begin to discuss the use of suffixes for changing the meaning of words and some of the spelling rules that may be applied. Refer back to the table in the front inner cover. For example, the word ‘devote’ changes to ‘devoted’ when the -ed suffix is applied. Note that one ‘e’ is dropped for this word. Discuss how the meaning of the word changes here, as well as any spelling rules used.

Review the affix word examples on the front inner cover and discuss their meanings, and how they relate to the text.
