Blending for Reading - Yes or No

Teacher writes a question on the board and shares an image of a glass of milk.

Children have to read the question in their head, not aloud, then teacher asks for children to support them in reading as they point to each word in the question.

Children can respond to the sentence by writing yes or no on whiteboards or stick thumbs up or down.

Is milk good for teeth?

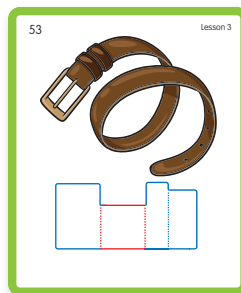

End of Session

Read 'We're Going on a Lion Hunt' by David Axtell.
